

DANCES AND DINNERS ENLIVEN SEASON AT LAKE HOPATCONG

Chinese - Japanese Cotillion and Night Straw Ride in Week's Amusements.

LAKE HOPATCONG, N. J., Sept. 11.—That there is no failing off in the patronage of the hotels gives testimony to the fact that each year the season extends further into autumn months, and surely never was this resort more attractive than from this time well in to October. Gayly about all day, Chinese and many people who have seen the entire season at the seashore come to this restful mountain and lake resort to round off, as it were, the summer's pleasures.

The week at the Alamas Hotel was replete with entertainments. At the Chinese and Japanese cotillon on Tuesday night, at the cottage of Mr. and Mrs. L. Packard of New York, a large number of guests were apparently astounded, and a promenade through the corridors of the cottage was a source of much amusement.

One of the delightful events of the week was the musical and dramatic entertainment given at the cottage of Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Burnett on Wednesday afternoon.

One of the greatest straw rides of the season was given by Mr. and Mrs. James Graham, who were accompanied by twenty of their friends on top of a six-hay wagon drawn by eight horses. The women wore straw hats and colored gingham dresses and the men were attired in slouch hats and blue jeans.

A party of New Yorkers went from hotel to Bernardinoville Tuesday in Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Douglas' tally.

The party consisted of Mr. and Mrs. L. Gleason, Mr. and Mrs. P. Hastings, Mr. and Mrs. L. Packard, Mr. and Mrs. L. Watson, Miss L. Pierson and L. Barrett.

On Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. G. Powers of New York gave a ball at their estate, Green Point. The dancing was in the large pavilion extending out over the lake shore, adjoining the mansion.

Society was greatly interested in the mock marriage which took place at the cottage of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Carpenter on Monday evening. Miss Louise Jennings of New York was the "bride" and Arthur Reynolds of Brooklyn the "bridegroom." Miss H. Henderson and Miss H. Hoffman of Brooklyn were made while the maid of honor was Miss Lillian Mathews.

One of the inveterate golfers among the recent arrivals is Ernest H. Wadcock, prominent in Wall Street circles.

There has been much entertainment this week and among the hostesses who have contributed to the pleasure of the cotagers by dinner and coaching parties are Mr. and Mrs. L. Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. R. Powers, Mr. and Mrs. R. Sawyer, Mr. and Mrs. M. Gofford, Mr. and Mrs. P. Lambert, Mr. and Mrs. K. Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. J. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Parsons, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Pearce, Mr. and Mrs. L. Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. H. Lawrence.

A number of fishing parties have been out in the River Styx this week making large catches of striped bass. Among those in one party were Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. L. Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. F. Stinson, Mr. and Mrs. K. Morris and Mr. and Mrs. H. Pratt.

On Tuesday evening a "poverty party" was given by Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Blanchard of New York. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. Doyle, Mr. and Mrs. F. Hopper, Mr. and Mrs. J. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. H. Stillman, Mr. and Mrs. H. Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. L. Spears.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Howell of New York at their cottage, near Woodstock, on Thursday evening. Those who won prizes were Mrs. L. Gillespie, Mrs. A. Sheldon, Mrs. A. Stewart, H. Thompson, K. Barrett and S. Ferguson.

BRIGHTON BEACH.

With Mardi Gras as the big attraction for the coming week, the Hotel Shelburne at Brighton Beach is still well filled, and as it has become a popular winter resort as well as a summer one, many persons have already engaged their apartments for the entire winter.

Winter bathing is considered the finest of the whole season by many persons, and the real lovers of the ocean and the water sports are finding keen delight on these golden days in the great outdoors.

Lieut. J. T. Brown and his famous "Hell Devil" Jazz Band, who have been a feature attraction at the Shelburne since the beginning of spring, continue to furnish dance music for the dancers.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Levin and their daughter, Miss Harriette Levin, spent the triple holiday in the Catskills and returned to the Shelburne a few days ago for the fall session.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Wilcox Jenkins of London, who have been at the hotel since early spring, have engaged their apartments for the winter. Others who will remain indefinitely at the Shelburne are: Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Kny, Dr. and Mrs. B. S. Gilbert, Dr. and Mrs. A. H. Field, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Dorgan, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Dainger, Mr. and Mrs. William F. Hitler, Arthur G. DaCosta, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Eppen and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Zimmerman.
